

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Presented by Garrison Brothers + Texas Monthly, benefitting Good Bourbon for a Good Cause

OVERVIEW

This is a search for the 2020 Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year. This person will display total breadth and aptitude in their abilities as a professional bartender. Over the course of the 4 stages of the competition and across multiple varying challenges, these bartenders will display (for example) creativity and innovation:

- Knowledge of Garrison Brothers Distillery
- Ability to understand and create balanced cocktails
- Technical skill, cleanliness and bar-side manner
- Presentation style
- Genuine hospitality

THE CHALLENGE

There are 4 stages of the Bourbon Brawl Bartender Competition.

1. Online submission of a Garrison Brothers Bourbon cocktail (bartenders and consumers). These recipes will then be blindly judged by a panel of experts.
2. The 75 qualifying bartenders from online submissions will move on to The Bourbon Takeover of Texas where Garrison Brothers Distillery employees and members of The Bourbon Brotherhood will be visiting the bartenders at their establishments across Texas to try their Garrison Brothers cocktail. In addition, 5 consumers or at home bartenders will also be chosen to have the opportunity to showcase their cocktails throughout the semi-finals and finals competitions.
3. From the 75 locations participating in The Bourbon Takeover of Texas, 25 bartenders will be chosen based on the judging criteria provided under "Selection Process" to compete in the semi-final round of the bartender competition. The semi-final round will take place in five cities across Texas (Austin, Houston, Dallas, Ft. Worth and San Antonio).
4. A first place winner will be chosen at each semi-final and will advance to the finals and win $500. The final competition will be held in Austin on May 7th. 5 bartenders will compete head to head for the chance to be crowned the 2020 Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year, $10,000, their very own Single Barrel (for personal consumption only) and a complete Texas Luxury experience (TBD).

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

GENERAL RULES

All entrants that want to compete in The 2020 Bourbon Brawl must be professional working bartenders at an establishment that is a part of the Bourbon Takeover of Texas week with the MINIMUM of a cocktail feature. ¹

Competitors must be at least 21 years of age.

Competitors must be legal residents of Texas.

Competitors may not be working on behalf of any other spirit supplier or brand at the time of the start of the Bourbon Takeover of Texas in February 2020.

PUBLICITY

By entering this program, you are giving Good Bourbon for a Good Cause, Garrison Brothers Distillery, Texas Monthly and their affiliates explicit rights to use your photo, an image of your drink, drink recipe name and your drink recipe for publicity purposes, including but not limited to: press, social media, recipe book inclusion, digital activation and promotional activation.

SELECTION PROCESS

Phase 1—Online Submissions (Bartenders and Consumers):

For promotional purposes and selecting bartenders, recipes for cocktails MUST be submitted online no later than January 5th, 2020.

Bartender Entry:

Professional working bartenders at an establishment are asked to submit an original recipe on the online submission form. For the purposes of determining the bartenders that will advance on to The Bourbon Takeover of Texas, entries will be assigned to the closest applicable market, as determined by the sponsor. All COMPLETE entries will be judged against the below criteria based on the perceived qualities of the written recipes and essay/video entry. The top 75 entries will be chosen to advance on to The Bourbon Takeover of Texas.

Judges will not take into consideration current employer, time spent bartending or any other personal information in the selection of The Bourbon Takeover of Texas qualifiers.

Consumer Entry:

Consumers and at-home bartenders who are not employed at an establishment are also encouraged to submit an online entry. HOWEVER, these entries will not be judged against the recipes from professional working bartenders at an establishment. Instead, consumer entries will be judged separately and against the below criteria based on the perceived qualities of the written recipes and essay/video entry. For the purposes of determining which recipes will be showcased at the semi-finals and finals, entries will be assigned to the closest applicable market, as determined by the sponsor. The top 5 recipes (1 per market- Austin, Dallas, Ft. Worth, San Antonio and Houston) will be asked to attend their respective markets semi-final competition (2 complimentary tickets provided by Texas Monthly) where their cocktail will be served at the beer and wine bar during the competition. Each markets consumer entry winner will also be invited to attend the finals competition in Austin, TX where they will have the opportunity to make their cocktail in front of Garrison Brothers Distillery employees, industry professionals and the top 5 Bourbon Brawl bartenders (2 complimentary tickets and accommodations provided by Texas Monthly).

1. This rule does NOT apply to consumers or at home bartenders that wish to be a part of The Bourbon Brawl as they will not directly compete against working bartenders for prizes provided by Texas Monthly. They will only be chosen to have their cocktails showcased at the semi-finals and finals competitions.

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Scoring:

- Online Submission Cocktail (50 overall points):
 - Cocktail name (5 points)
 - Appearance and presentation (perceived based on description) (10 points)
 - Balance of flavors, aromas and character (10 points)
 - Written description (or video explanation) of inspiration and concept - (5 points)
 - Use of spirit (how much GB can be tasted) (10 points)
 - Creativity (10 points)

Entry Criteria:

Each competitor MUST serve their Garrison Brothers cocktail they submitted online during the Bourbon Takeover of Texas week.²

Garrison Brothers Small Batch Bourbon is the ONLY expression eligible to be used in the bartender's cocktail of choice.

Recipes must be original. An original recipe is the product of one's own mind and is not a copy or imitation.

Recipes must contain no more than 2 1/2 ounces (at 40 percent ABV) total combined alcoholic ingredients, and the total volume of the ingredients shall not exceed 6 ounces.

Recipes must not exceed 7 ingredients including drops, dashes. (This does not include garnishes.)

Homemade ingredients are allowed but must be easy to reproduce.

Ingredients must be expressed in fluid ounces (1/2 oz., 1 oz., 2 oz., etc.), with dashes and drops being the smallest quantities.

Preparation and mixing instructions must be included with your recipe.

Limit 1 full entry per person.

The judging panel of experts will review and score all online entries. Initial scores will be based on the interpretation of the written description submitted. In some cases, the judging panel may recreate the cocktails to settle closely ranked submissions.

Any entries attempted through the use of agencies or robotic, repetitive, automatic, programmed or similar methods will be void. Any attempt by a person to use multiple email accounts or identities to gain more entries than permitted by these official rules shall result in disqualification at the sole discretion of sponsor. In the event of a dispute regarding the identity of the person submitting an entry, the entry will be deemed to be submitted by the "authorized account holder" associated with the email address at the time of entry, which must comply with these official rules. The authorized account holder is defined as the natural person who's assigned an email address by the service provider or other organization that's responsible for assigning email addresses. Potential winners may be required to provide evidence (to the sponsor's satisfaction) that they're the authorized account holder of the email address associated with a winning entry. In the event a dispute regarding the identity of the person who actually submitted an entry cannot be resolved to the sponsor's satisfaction, the affected entry will be deemed ineligible. Entries and other submitted material become the property of sponsor and will not be acknowledged or returned. Refer to the additional requirements below for more details regarding the rules for your entry.

1. This rule does NOT apply to consumers or at-home bartenders that wish to be a part of The Bourbon Brawl as they will not directly compete against working bartenders for prizes provided by Texas Monthly. They will only be chosen to have their cocktails showcased at the semi-finals and finals competitions.

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Phase 2— The Bourbon Takeover of Texas:

The Bourbon Takeover of Texas is a week long event across the state of Texas that showcases the top 75 bartenders from online submissions. They are asked to feature their recipe at their place of employment for the duration of this week. During this time, members from the Garrison Brothers Distillery sales, marketing and production team with the help of Good Bourbon for a Good Cause and The Bourbon Brotherhood will be visiting these locations to sample said cocktails. By participating in the Bourbon Takeover of Texas with a cocktail recipe, the bar or restaurant will automatically qualify the bartender who created the cocktail to be considered for the semi-final round of the 2020 Garrison Brothers Bourbon Brawl Bartender Competition.

Phase 3— Semifinal:

Garrison Brothers Distillery, The Bourbon Brotherhood, and industry experts will visit all accounts and judge The Bourbon Takeover of Texas cocktails. The top 25 cocktails will advance to the semi-finals round of the bartender competition. Homemade ingredients are acceptable, but cocktails must be able to be reproduced easily. The bartender MUST be available on the date of the semi-final competition. The layout of the actual semi-final competition will be created by Texas Monthly and Good Bourbon for a Good Cause and is TBD, but will be communicated to semi-finalists no less than two weeks prior to the competition.

The winner of the consumer entry will be asked to attend their respective markets semi-final competition (2 complimentary tickets provided by Texas Monthly) where their cocktail will be served at the beer and wine bar during the competition.

Scoring:

- Bourbon Takeover of Texas Cocktail (50 overall points):
 - Cocktail name (5 points)
 - Appearance and presentation (perceived based on description) (10 points)
 - Balance of flavors, aromas and character (15 points)
 - Use of spirit (how much GB can be tasted) (10 points)
 - Creativity (10 points)

Semi-final Competition Dates:

Semi-final competitions will be held in March through April of 2020 in 5 markets:

Houston - Thursday, March 26th, 2020
San Antonio - Thursday, April 2nd, 2020
Dallas - Thursday, April 9th, 2020
Ft. Worth - Thursday, April 16th, 2020
Austin - Thursday, April 23rd, 2020

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Phase 4—Final:

A total of 5 finalists will be selected from the semi-final competitions (1 semi-final winner per market) and will compete at the finale event on May 7th, 2020 in Austin, TX. For the purposes of selecting the winner of 2020 Garrison Brothers Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year, a panel of well-respected industry experts selected by Texas Monthly and Good Bourbon for a Good Cause will judge the competition. Rules and judging criteria will be created by Texas Monthly and Good Bourbon for a Good Cause and shared with all finalists no less than 2 weeks prior to the final competition.

The top 5 consumer entries from the online submission in Phase 1 will also be invited to attend the final competition with 1 guest. They will be given the opportunity to create their cocktail in front of Garrison Brothers Distillery team members, industry experts and the top 5 finalists prior to the competition. Accommodations will be provided by Texas Monthly.

POST-FINALS— WINNER REQUIREMENTS

2020 Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year must be available the day after the finals for internal interviews and with reasonable accommodations make time to be available in the following week for media interviews. Travel accommodations will be made for all finalists to accommodate this requirement.

The Winner of the 2020 Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year competition will participate in at least 3 Garrison Brothers Distillery promotions and/or events as the 2020 Bourbon Brawl Bartender of the Year.

These appearances are subject to availability.

Garrison Brothers Distillery will provide a minimum of 4 weeks notice prior to any request to attend an event.

All costs associated with travel and accommodation for these events will be provided for the winner.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRY

Entries must be in English. Entries must not allude to the overconsumption or irresponsible consumption of beverage alcohol. Entries that do not include all required information and do not adhere to the foregoing and following requirements will be considered void and will not be considered in the judging of this contest. Entries that are deemed by the sponsor in its sole discretion to be illegal, obscene, profane or not in keeping with the sponsor's image will be disqualified.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

By submitting an entry, you warrant that:

- You are the creator of the entry.
- The entry is wholly original.
- The entry does not infringe the intellectual property, privacy, publicity rights or any other legal or moral rights of any third party, including any current or former employer, and does not defame any person or identify any person by name or other identifying information.
- The entry has not previously been entered in any other contest.
- The entry has not been previously published in any medium.
- The entry does not violate any law or regulation.
- The sponsor's determination as to whether any entry potentially violates the rights of any third party is final.

ABOUT GARRISON BROTHERS DISTILLERY

Garrison Brothers Distillery is a small farm and ranch located in the beautiful Texas Hill Country that authentically produces straight bourbon whiskey. Garrison Brothers introduced the first bourbon whiskey legally made in Texas in 2010 and has since developed a rabid fan base. They currently have a waiting list of more than 15,000 just to volunteer on bottling days, and their Cowboy Bourbon™ normally sells out within hours of its release. Garrison Brothers is the first legal bourbon distillery in Texas history and is one of the first distilleries in America outside of Kentucky to produce authentic, handmade bourbon whiskey and only bourbon whiskey. The business was founded in 2006.

Every expression of Garrison Brothers bourbon is made from a sweet mash bill and barrel aged in the intense Texas climate. The extreme heat creates multiple aging seasons in a year, resulting in a darker, richer, and fuller bourbon; bolder than almost any other bourbon on the market.

2020 GARRISON BROTHERS BOURBON BRAWL RULES AND REGULATIONS

At the American Craft Spirit Awards in 2018, the Garrison Brothers team was awarded a gold medal for its Single Barrel Bourbon, a silver medal for its 2016 Small Batch Bourbon, and another silver for its Balmorhea Double Barrel Bourbon. Jim Murray's Whiskey Bible named Garrison Brothers Cowboy Bourbon™ "American Micro Whiskey of the Year" in 2014 and again in 2017. The Whiskey Bible recently awarded the same distinction to Balmorhea Double Barrel Bourbon for 2019. Garrison Brothers was voted Best Craft Whiskey Distillery in America by readers of USA Today in 2017.

Garrison Brothers is a proud and active member of the communities of Blanco, Fredericksburg, Hye, Johnson City, and Stonewall. The distillery and its barrel barns are open to the public for tours in Hye, Texas. Anyone interested in learning more about Garrison Brothers Bourbon or in taking a tour of the distillery should visit garrisonbros.com or follow @garrisonbros on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
